

Irish Sources

Members who attended/viewed the recent talk (November 2020) 'The Huguenots of Ireland' may be interested in the sources mentioned at the end of the talk. Here are the details:

Books:

Grace Lawless Lee, The Huguenot Settlements in Ireland, reprinted by Genealogical Publishing Co. Ltd, Baltimore, 1999.

Raymond Hylton, Ireland's Huguenots and their Refuge, 1662-1745, Sussex Academic Press, 2005.

Alicia St Leger, Silver, Sails and Silk: Huguenots in Cork 1685-1850, Cork Civic Trust, 1991.

E. Joyce Best, The Huguenots of Lisburn: The Story of the Lost Colony. Lisburn Historical Society, 1997. (This book is available online at www.lisburn.com/books/huguenots/huguenots.html)

Article:

'Researching Huguenot Settlers in Ireland' by Vivien Costello, published in Brigham Young University Family Historian, Vol. 6 (Fall 2007), online at <https://scholarsarchive.byu.edu/byufamilyhistorian/vol6/iss1/9>. This is an excellent 80-page article with extremely detailed treatment of all Huguenot settlements in Ireland, and a wealth of family history material.

All this material is available at the Society's library in Erskineville (Secretary's house) along with more Irish sources.

- Robert Nash, November 2020

Additional Resource (added April 2023)

The Irish Huguenot Archive (website) <https://www.ireland.anglican.org/news/7722/the-irish-huguenot-archive>